

Art Night is Coming

Three great events in one!
October 24th 6 PM - 8 PM
at Carson Elementary

ART CREATIONS

We will have some great art projects available in the gym for students to exercise their creativity, including a special project where students can create original works of art that can be turned into some great items that will be perfect for gifts! Get a sneak peek at www.kidkcreations.us

Have Questions? Contact Darla Barkley Darla.barkley@comcast.net

REFLECTIONS DISPLAY & JUDGING

Come and check out all the hard work our kids put into creating their reflections entries which will be displayed in the Carson Commons! Special guests will be attending to judge our reflections entries, including PTA Region 5 director Cheryl Child and Superintendent Tony Apostle.

Get those Reflections entries in this week!

BOOK FAIR FAMILY NIGHT

This is a great chance for students to bring in their parents and their wish lists and stock up on some great books for AR tests, gifts, and at home reading!

You will also be able to check out your teachers book wish list and purchase books for the classroom library. These are gifts that keep on giving!

Have Questions? Contact Susannah Youngquist vpevents@carsonpta.org

We always need volunteers to help make these events great! Please contact Sarah at volunteer@carsonpta.org if you would like to help
